

LLANGASTY

RETREAT HOUSE

27 to 30 November 2017
Isaiah: the Fifth Evangelist

Led by the Ven Martin Williams

“The glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together”
(cf. Is. 40.5).

The Advent Liturgy will contain many readings from the Prophet Isaiah and many other references to his prophecies.

The extent to which this prophetic book as a whole anticipates the Good News of Jesus Christ caused Isaiah to be known to the Fathers of the church as the “Fifth Evangelist”.

Prompted by them, we shall meditate on such themes as: the meaning of “gospel”; on how we ourselves “hear” the gospel; Isaiah’s gospel of the birth of the Messiah - of his Life and Teaching - of his Passion and Vindication - of the Hope of his Coming.

There will be six addresses in all, plenty of silence, but some opportunity for discussion together of the themes of the retreat.

Fr Martin Williams is a retired Parish Priest and Archdeacon of the Church in Wales, previously a Tutor in New Testament at Chichester Theological College.

Arrive 4pm Monday and depart after lunch on Thursday.

Cost £240
