

LLANGASTY

RETREAT HOUSE

Creative Retreat - not pure stitch!
20 to 24 November 2023
'In the Bleak Midwinter'
a preparation for Advent and Christmas

Led by Ann Meek and Sue Ives

Come and take some time out to prepare for Advent and Christmas. Explore your creative spirituality using a range of different media. Experiment with colour and texture using collage, mixed media, stitched textiles or your own preferred technique.

Come and share a time of creativity, fellowship and reflection in God's awesome landscape.

Ann Meek started stitching in her forties when she enrolled on a leisure course at her local college. She got hooked and went on to study C&G embroidery and is now a tutor and retreat leader. She firmly believes that we can grow closer to God through creativity.

Sue Ives is a Licensed Minister and now fully retired, with a big birthday in 2023! She enjoys patchwork and quilting, mainly creating her own designs. Sue also enjoys writing and has produced 7 booklets of daily thoughts, which connect the ordinary with the Godly!

Arrive 4pm on Monday and leave after lunch on Friday

Cost £ 390
